

Sounds great... anything else?

In May, we will have a weekend camp for all expedition participants and leaders to get to know each other (this is included in the price).

On the way home from Holland we will stop off and spend the day in Brugge, Belgium to take in another experience (and stock up on chocolate!)

Where are we staying?

We will camp at Scout Centre Buitenzorg - a recognised Scout campsite, approximately 25km from Amsterdam. The site has good transport links into Amsterdam, Rotterdam and Utrecht.

Scout Centre Buitenzorg

How will we travel there and back?

We will travel by coach, taking the Dover-Calais ferry then on through France, Belgium and into Holland.

On the way back we will return by the same route, stopping for a day visit in Brugge, Belgium.

Who can come?

- Scouts (must be 11 by 31st August 2012)
- Explorer Scouts (14-18)
- Members of the Scout Network (18-25)
- Adult leaders and helpers (18+)

Do I come with my group or on my own?

This trip is open to anyone, regardless of whether an adult from your Scout Group / Explorer Unit is coming - everyone who participates will be part of the expedition unit and take part in activities with others.

Who is leading the trip?

A team of experienced adult leaders from across Hemel Hempstead are leading the expedition.

How much does it cost?

To help with the cost of the event, Hemel Hempstead District Scouts have already subsidised the activity by £4,000 to enable as many people as possible to come.

The trip will cost no more than £450 in total (includes transport, accommodation, food, activities, insurance, a pre-event camp, UK scarf and unit clothing).

To help further with the costs of the expedition, we will be running some fundraising events where money raised will be deducted from the fees of those who support the fundraising event.

Grants are also available to enable participation - contact your Scout / Explorer leader or the expedition leader (below) for more information.
