

SOUNDS GREAT—ANYTHING ELSE?

We will have a weekend camp for all expedition participants and leaders to get to know each other and at least one sailing session at Bury Lake.

WHERE ARE WE STAYING?

Lochearnhead is a converted railway station that is situated about 30 miles north of Stirling, which features bunk accommodation for up to 90 people and access to the finest walking country in central Scotland. Within five miles of the Station there are more than 120 hills that are over 600 metres. The area surrounding Lochearnhead can provide both an introduction to the hills for the beginner and a serious challenge to the experienced walker, which makes Lochearnhead an ideal location for activities for all ages.

The views over Loch Earn give a tantalising glimpse of water based activities such as sailing, and canoeing.

Nearby is a Sustrans national cycle route that follows the upper railway line from Calendar through to Killin and beyond. It climbs through Glen Ogle giving superb views to Ben Vorlich before the hair-raising descent to Killin.

WHERE IS LOCHEARNHEAD?

HOW WILL WE TRAVEL?

We will travel by coach from Hemel on the evening of 25th July and will return late on 9th August

WHO CAN COME?

- Scouts (must be 12 by 26th July 2014)
- Explorer Scouts (14-18)
- Members of the Scout Network (18-25)
- Adult leaders and helpers (18+)

DO I COME AS PART OF MY GROUP?

This trip is open to anyone, regardless of whether an adult from your Scout Group / Explorer Unit is coming - everyone who participates will be part of the expedition unit and take part in activities with others.

WHO IS LEADING THE TRIP?

A team of experienced adult leaders from across Hemel Hempstead are leading the expedition.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

To help with the cost of the event, Hemel Hempstead District Scouts have already subsidised the activity by £2,000 to enable as many people as possible to come.

The trip will cost no more than £450 in total (includes transport, accommodation, food, activities, insurance, a pre-event camp, camp scarf and unit clothing).

To help further with the costs of the expedition, we may run some fundraising events where money raised will be deducted from the fees of those who support the fundraising event.

Help is also available to enable participation (up to £200 per person) - for more details contact Russ Dyble in confidence: 07790 296378 or by email: dc@hemel-scouts.co.uk
